

Every minute spent updating the records is a minute that could be better used elsewhere.

Alex

No-nonsense teacher

ACTIVITIES

Alex is 59 years old and lives in a small town in Turin province. He is lively and quick-witted despite his age. He enjoys technology, but only as long as it makes his life easier. In any case, his main focus is delivering high-spirited earth-shattering lectures to his students.

GOALS AND DESIRES

Alex would like to interact more closely and effectively with his students' families. Also, he would like to be able to fulfil his bureaucratic duties in the minimum possible time, so as to fully concentrate on teaching activities.

DIGITAL TOOLS

The school provided every teacher with a tablet in order to fulfil institutional duties.

NEEDS

- Alex needs to record grades, lecture topics and absence notes in a quick and efficient way.
- Alex would like to have prompt interaction with families, publishing assignments and support materials, and scheduling meetings with parents.

OBSTACLES AND FRUSTRATIONS

- Difficulties in arranging meetings with parents and in keeping them updated about student performance, absences and inappropriate behaviors.
- Alex has not a place where he can share homework assignments and support materials, and make this information accessible to parents.
